Film Prize Junior (FPJR) is a film education program and an annual festival that showcases students' creative work. Film Prize Junior may feature your child in various ways, such as images, audio, and video in submissions, live-streamed red-carpet events, interviews, and promotional content on our website and social media platforms. Personal Information and optional demographic information are collected for film crediting and grant purposes.

Privacy and Data Usage and Retention

Film Prize Junior ensures that all Personal Information (PI) is used exclusively for program and competition purposes. This information is stored securely offline, with student PI deleted one year after the festival's conclusion. Refer to our website for details on our privacy policy. <https://filmprizejr.com/privacy/>

By signing this form, you consent to your child's participation and the usage of their personal information as outlined. This includes their image, audio, and video being used in project credits and online, their appearance at the red carpet event, and the use of event photographs on Film Prize Junior's digital platforms. Additionally, your child may be interviewed, and these interviews may be published on Film Prize Junior's website and social media. The Teacher Producer will keep this record on file during production until it is destroyed at the end of the school year.

For any inquiries regarding collecting, using, or disclosing your child's personal information, please contact newmexico@filmprizejr.com. To access, review, modify, or request deletion of your child's personal information, please contact your child's school directly.
